Matt Pryde, Fundy Active Communities Coordinator, is looking for listings of any events coming up between now and September for the next edition of the Active Communities Chronicle. If you have any programs running, if you have any success stories from the last 4 months, and big grant announcements, anything at all that is associated with physical activity in the Fundy Region that you would like to promote, please send it my way by June 7th. The Chronicle has grown every edition since it started a year ago, so let's keep that trend going. Matt may be contacted at: T- (902) 896-2200; C- (902) 956-0202; F- (902) 896-2425; E-mail: Matthew.Pryde@gov.ns.ca

Londonderry Community Council News is not available this month due to illness in Sally Richard's family.

People on the Move a new monthly column made its debut in the last issue. We encourage you to submit items for the column if you know of someone who has started a new business, new job, or received a promotion. Conversely, if you own or work or know of a company which is locating in the area, expanding or other business news. All listings are free and should be faxed to 902-647-2194, or email: maurice@theshorelinejournal.com

Corrected information about the West Colchester 75 KM Yard Sale. Last issue, the dates were not exactly as they should have been. The 75 Km Yard Sale will be held on Saturday and Sunday, July 11 and 12th. We encourage everyone to participate. This is also a great opportunity for Community organizations, clubs, etc. to raise some money. The sale will start at Mingo's corner in Onslow and run through to Parrsboro. This is a great opportunity for households to turn those unwanted items into useful cash and recycle instead of hauling them off to the landfill. Please contact & leave message at The Shoreline Journal, Box 41, Bass River, NS B0M 1B0, PH: 902-647-2968; Fax: 902-647-2194; E-mail: maurice@theshorelinejournal.com, or Clair Peers at 902-895-0788, or 902-897-5951 E-mail c.peers@ns.sympatico.ca

Dorothy is looking for additional summertime recipes for inclusion in the July issue. If you wish to send them by e-mail: maurice@theshorelinejournal.com or mail to: Box 41, Bass River, NS, B0M 1B0.

Circulation of the Shoreline Journal has been enlarged to 5,750 copies to include every home from Parrsboro to Advocate Harbour in Cumberland County. We welcome thousands of new readers.

This issue of the Shoreline Journal is the largest one for many years. We are proud to include "Section B" an 8 page feature highlighting 40 successful years for Masstown Market. "Section C" is a 12 page feature focusing on tourism attractions from Joggins, Advocate Harbour, Port Greville and Parrsboro along the Cobequid Shore to Onslow and all points in between.

Bass River Teen Awarded $70,000 Scholarship

By Linda Harrington

A desire to teach dance classes to children in her small community has resulted in an outstanding award for 18 year old Julia McLellan of Bass River.

This talented grade 12 student has just been awarded the 2009 TD Community Leadership Scholarship worth up to $70,000.

In 2006, Julia created "Centre Stage" to teach varied forms of dance to children during March Break. The activity was well received and expanded into a full dance program for ages six and up from surrounding areas. The training is provided free but donations are accepted towards upkeep of the Bass River Community Hall where classes are held.

Julia is one of only 20 Scholarship recipients across Canada and one of only two in Nova Scotia. She received the fabulous news in January but had to keep it a secret until the winners were announced in May.

Just back from attending the prestigious award ceremony in Ottawa with her mother Janet and father Rob, Julia says she had a most amazing trip. Scholarship winners planted trees for Tree Canada, took part in fun activities and workshops, learned about not-for-profit organizations and received a great deal of helpful advice for their future.

Julia plans on attending Sheridan Institute in Oakville, Ontario to study in the four year Music Theatre - Performance program. She says her fingers are crossed that she may perform on Broadway someday.

This talented singer and actor has won numerous awards for her talents and she is no stranger to performing. She most recently had a lead role in the Cobequid Educational Centre school

Attention all hockey fans! PMC Roofing has generously donated an autographed Sidney Crosby Jersey to the Village Follies Relay for Life team. Village Follies members will be selling tickets on the jersey at The Masstown Market on May 30th and 31st and June 6th and 7th. All proceeds support the Relay For Life. Tickets are also available from any Village Follies members including Lisa McBurnie (left) and John Harrington (right). Draw will be made on June 7th. (Harrington Photo)

Vote on June 9

By Maurice Rees

Nova Scotians are going to the polls to vote in the provincial election on June 9th. Since the Shoreline Journal is a monthly publication, and as in all campaigns, things change daily, we have purposely not tried to recap all the press releases we have received.

However, we have worked hard to contact all four political parties and candidates in the ridings of Colchester North and Cumberland South to make them aware of what we had to offer. Not only that, but we assured all candidates, they would be treated equally and we would not be endorsing any particular candidate. We wanted the voters to decide.

However, as part of our election coverage, we prepared a questionnaire, and asked all candidates to respond keeping their response to a maximum of 500 words.

Responses were received from four candidates: Karen Casey, Progressive Conservative; Lorenda Ebbett, Liberal and Arthur Hadden, NDP who are running in Colchester North. Don Tabor, the NDP candidate was the only response received from the riding of Cumberland
