

Summer Still Sizzling at Masstown Market

Captain Cob's Corn Maze & Fun Farm is now open for the season. Enjoy family fun for all ages, 7 days a week from 9AM- dusk (weather permitting).

Birthday party packages at the Corn Maze may be booked by phoning Kristen at 902-641-3033. For other inquiries phone the Corn Maze at 902-662-2477.

Fresh Nova Scotian produce continues to arrive, with the local harvest in full swing. Customers will enjoy filling their carts with fresh beans, peas, carrots and new potatoes. How about a traditional hodge podge? Wild blueberries will be soon be harvested locally and Millen Farms strawberries continue to arrive daily.

Bike Nights have been very well attended each Tuesday evening, and these will continue throughout August and September. This takes place in the Dairy Bar parking lot. Everyone welcome!

Some very unique antique cars have been showing up for the Friday Night "Cruise In". Shine up your fancy set of wheels, or stop by for a trip down memory lane every Friday Night from 6-8PM, weather permitting.

Looking for a family fun photo opportunity? A new photo board, with humorous nautical characters has just been installed near the Fish & Chip Boat. Snap a fun photo for facebook or to email friends and relatives. Local artist Jeff Whitehead, of Greenfield, did an amazing job painting this project.

"Wild Blueberry Harvest Festival" events will be taking place August 20th- 23rd at Masstown Market, beginning with a "Wild Blueberry Jam" on Thursday, August 20th. Stop by the wharf and listen to toe-tapping entertainment by Dean and Tim Murphy, enjoy delicious gluten free fish & chips, and a special complimentary wild blueberry dessert.

A Wild Blueberry "Cruise In" and Ice Cream Social will be held on Friday, August 21st. Enjoy a complimentary wild blueberry ice cream while checking out the fancy antique cars on display. This might be a good time to try one of our delicious sundaes made with fresh wild blueberries.

Saturday, August 22nd there will be food sampling in the main Market area from 1-3:00, with lots of Market-made wild blueberry baked goods filling the shelves.

Head on over to Captain Cob's Corn Maze & Fun Farm on August 23rd for an old fashioned outdoor picnic from 11AM - 3PM, with all proceeds to Harvest 4 Hunger NS. Trinity United Church will host an on-site 11 AM worship service. Afterwards, play on the zip lines, bounce on the huge bouncy pillow, race through the obstacle course, feed the critters in the petting zoo, and take a horse drawn wagon ride through the corn. Enjoy fresh picked corn on the cob, local sausage on a bun, wild blueberry shortcake and wild blueberry ice cream for purchase. Fun for kids of all ages! Harvest 4 Hunger NS is a growing project of Canadian Foodgrains Bank. Admission will be by monetary donation (Regular admission $12/adult, $10/student, $35/family).

For those looking for a far out adventure, the "Fundy Fly & Feast" package awaits. Take an hour long flight along the gorgeous Bay of Fundy, to Five Islands and then dine on a scrumptious lobster dinner for two at Masstown Lighthouse when you return. Bookings can be made through the Debert Airport by phoning 902-662-2228. If this is too much adventure you can still enjoy a delicious lobster dinner on the wharf, any time until mid-October.

Visitors to Friday Night "Cruise In" enjoyed a complimentary ice cream during the Strawberry Festival. This will be repeated at the August 21st Wild Blueberry "Cruise In" from 6-8PM.

Members of the Onslow Belmont Fire Brigade made a lot of children happy with a giant slipper slide at Captain Cob's Corn Maze & Fun Farm during Berry Bonanza on July 12th. The Corn Maze opened for the season on July 25th.
