IN MEMORY

Joan Elizabeth (Kennedy) Carter

In loving memory of Joan Elizabeth (Kennedy) Carter, RN, of Perth, Ontario, formerly of Halifax, NS, who passed away in hospital in Perth on March 16th, 2011. Joan was born in Great Village, NS on May 7, 1942 and lived there until training as a nurse at the Victoria General Hospital in Halifax, graduating with the class of '63A. She worked in Halifax for several years before going to work in London, ON. Joan was diagnosed with MS in the 70's and moved back to Halifax shortly thereafter. She continued to work as a nurse, mainly on the Neo-Natal ward at the Izaak Walton Killam Hospital and later established the Enterostomal Therapy position, which is for the care of open wounds in babies. Joan met her husband, James Melvin Carter, also an MS patient, and they were married on March 5th, 2001 in Perth. Jim passed away in August 2010. Joan was a lover of music, and while in Halifax was in the choir of Rockingham United Church. She was an avid reader and was also a writer herself, writing "Tears, Trials and Triumphs: A history of the VG School of Nursing", as well as an article for the NS Historical Review entitled "Jane Soley Hamilton, Midwife". She was also the editor of the VG Nurses Alumni magazine for many years. Joan was predeceased by her husband Jim, as well as her parents, John Medford Kennedy in 1962 and Bernice (Roope) Kennedy, in 2004. She is survived by sisters Ella Kennedy of Toronto, ON and Barbara Kennedy of Kentville, NS and several cousins. A funeral service was held in Perth on March 20th. There will be a Memorial Service in Halifax at a later date.

Onslow Belmont Notes

By Debbie Weatherby

Now that the time change has gone into effect the evenings are so much nicer and you can be outdoors attempting to do all those spring chores a person likes to get done. Not sure how many of you saw the moon the other night but it was HUGE!! Really something to see.

The Onslow-Belmont Pastoral Charge held their annual meeting and it has been a successful year of amalgamation. The former Lower Onslow Church has been deeded to the community and is active as a Community Center; the Belmont Church has been sold to be used as a residence. At the congregational meeting, it was voted to donate $5000 from the proceeds of the sale to the Belmont Cemetery Corporation to be a legacy of the United Church in Belmont.
