ATV Used to Damage Debert and Masstown Properties

By Maurice Rees

Three businesses and a vehicle in Debert, while a shed in Masstown sustained damage in the early morning hours of March 10, according to Colchester District RCMP who responded to several reports of damage to buildings and vehicles in the communities of Debert and Masstown.

Preliminary investigation indicates damage was caused by two individuals driving an All Terrain Vehicle (ATV) with a push bar attached to the front. It is expected the front of the vehicle used has significant damage.

The damage at the Debert businesses was to garage doors. The damage in Masstown was to a shed. Colchester RCMP are hoping with the release of these details and security video, people might come forward with information on these incidents or possibly report any other incidents of damage from that night which has not been reported to them as of March 16th.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Colchester District RCMP at 902-893-6820. Should callers wish to remain anonymous, they can call Nova Scotia Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477), text TIP202 + your message to CRIMES (274637) or by secure online tips at www.crimestoppers.ns.ca.
