Youth Expo – Unique Event

The Youth Expo, run by volunteers, is a unique event designed to expose youth of all ages to new activities related to the outdoors, fitness, art, community programs, nutrition and overall better health and wellness. On Saturday, April 27th, from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, the Don Henderson Memorial Complex, Brookfield will be a beehive of activity with static displays and interactive booths and thousands of eager youth and parents attending the annual Youth Expo.

The expo is designed to be interactive, guided by professionals and experts in various fields in an effort to educate and inspire. In 3 years 256 exhibitors have inspired 8,100 individuals. Shuttle service provided by Truro Nissan.

This event is free for youth, run by volunteers. The Expo has become one of the largest events held in Brookfield each year. Refer to the website www.theyouthexpo.com for Corporate Sponsors and Exhibitors.

The Don Henderson Memorial Complex, Brookfield attracts more visitors during the Women That Hunt Expo than any weekend during the year.

Want to try your hand at boxing?

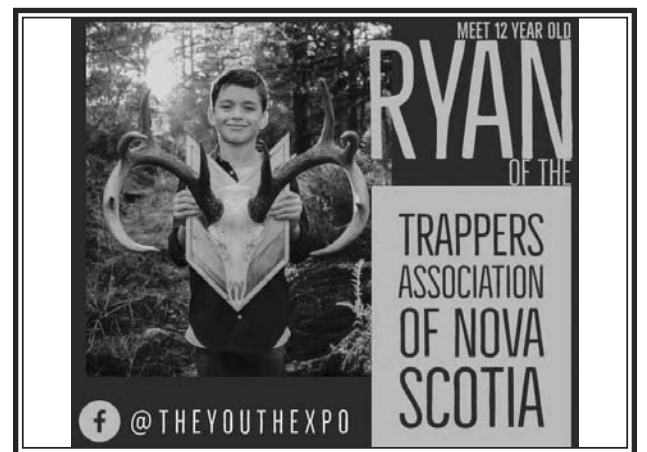

Don't be left home alone. Maybe you'd like to take up dancing.

Try something new? Have a game of Bubble Soccer.

If you don't have one, you will find some horses that like to be petted.

12 year old Ryan will explain why he likes being a Trapper.
