Bearcat Bytes: Ben Sheffar

Bearcat-of-the-Week honours went to veteran forward, Ben Sheffar. Foot speed makes him hard to play against and puts him in a good position. His winning goal against Picou County was a dandy. He assisted on Truro's lone goal in Valley and scored the opening goal against Grand Falls. His speed, energy and experience are great assets at this time of year.

After two seasons with the Newbridge Senators Major Bantams, he moved on to two solid seasons with the Dartmouth Wolfpack. He became a Timberwolf during the 2018-2019 season, and 16 games into his second season he was acquired by the Truro Bearcats. He played 13 games with the Sackville Jr. "B" Blazers before finishing that season with Truro. Now in his second full season with Truro, he's been counted upon to play deep in the opposition's end.

Bearcat Bytes: Simon Mullen

Bearcat-of-the-Week honours went to rookie defence-man, Simon Mullen. He's one of seven rookies in the Bearcat lineup that started their junior careers last October. Like each, he's gearing up for his first playoff run.

He came up through the Truro Bearcat Major Bantam Program where he spent two seasons, displaying an offensive flair. In his second year he was named to the First All-Star team, the first non-forward from Truro to receive such an honour. Last year, he played with the Weeks Midgets, scoring 5 goals, and assisting on 8 others. The Bearcats selected him as a Territorial last June. He reported to camp with a high hockey IQ to go along with good size. To date, he's appeared in 29 of Truro's 36 games, picking up his first Junior goal in Yarmouth in November. This is an exciting time for all, especially the rookies.
