l'Acadie and Francophonie Nominations Open

Nominations are now open for the Lieutenant-Governor's Award of Excellence for l'Acadie and Francophonie. The award recognizes people whose social, economic or cultural contributions have made a positive impact on the francophone community and Nova Scotia as a whole.

"Nova Scotia's Acadian and francophone communities have helped shape our province's history and are still essential to our identity today," said Lt.-Gov. Mike Savage. "This award is an important opportunity to recognize the people who uplift the French language and culture and give back to their community." Recipients will be recognized in three categories: Francophone - a resident who identifies as francophone; Francophile - a resident who does not identify as francophone but supports and promotes French language or culture and Youth - a resident under 25.

Submissions are due by March 27. The selection committee includes representatives from Université Sainte-Anne, La Fédération acadienne de la Nouvelle-Écosse, L'Alliance Française, the Office of Acadian Affairs and Francophonie, a francophone recipient of the Order of Nova Scotia or Order of Canada, a youth member of the community and a former award recipient.
