Laura Lewis allowed her horse Sandy a few trips around the ring to warm up before Showmanship Class at Glooscap Trail 4-H Club Achievement Day. Laura would be competing in Hunter Hack, Equitation and Road Hack for English Saddle. (Harrington Photo)

We held our Achievement Day on July 15 at the Bass River Heritage Museum. It went very well. The projects looked great! We were glad that community members stopped in to take a look and join us for the BBQ.

We wrapped up the evening with a friendly tug of war between members and parents and leaders. The members won once again!

Be sure to come and see our petting zoo at the Bass River Heritage Day - Saturday, August 1 at the Museum.

The next general meeting will be Tuesday, August 4, 2009 at the Bass River Community Hall. We will be making plans for the NS Provincial Exhibition and 4-H Day (August 25).

Debert Legion Notes

By Danny Martell

A tip of the hat and a very special thank you is passed along to Bill and Paula Wood for the fine job they did with the Decoration Day. It sure is nice to see fresh Canadian flags on our Veterans graves.

If you know of a Veteran's grave, which does not have a flag flying over it, please give the Branch a call and one will be placed on the grave. (Thanks Bill and Paula).

Right now the golf world is just a buzz with excitement, what with the tremendous showing of Tom Watson at the British Open, not too bad at all for a young fellow of 59.

We here in Debert have had a fair amount of excitement in the last little while and it all started with Greg Muise and his Hole-In-One. Greg dropped his ace on the Par Three, third hole, on Sunday the 21st of June. Congratulations Greg.

It just keeps getting better; on Saturday, July 18th the 2nd "Annual Doug Peppard Memorial Golf Tournament" took place at the Debert Golf Course.

But for one small shower, the weather did cooperate. Who were the winners? On this day, every body was a winner. The foursome of David Allaby, Steve Masters, Matt MacKay and Wayne Purdy finished in first place.

Two of the approximate 91 golfers were Doug's brother (Vernon) and his wife (Joyce) and wouldn't you know it, Joyce got the closest to the pin for the girls, while Wendell Barnill took the same honours for the men. Our MLA Karen Casey donated cash prizes for the closest to the pin event. (Thank you very much Karen).

Wendell donated his winnings back to the pot. (Thank you, Wendell). Who the heck is Tom Watson? Debert has Wendell and his driver, not to shabby for a young fellow.

The longest drive's for the day went to Dave Pugsley (M) and Gayle (Gail) Smith.

Gayle (Gail) Smith and Ted Taggart both won watches for their fine showing on the putting greens.

Iris and her grand daughters Natalie and Nicole looked after the putting competition and kept a sharp eye on the 8th hole to see if a Hole-In-One might be the order of the day, but alas none.

Iris and her family, presented all the money made from the Tournament to Shelly Langille, who is the head of the Learning Centre at Debert School (in access of $2500). Shelly was extremely pleased for the large donation. To make Shelly's day complete, she won a beautiful table made by Everett McCully. (Everett, thank you very much).

A special thank you is passed along to Layne Hayward, who did an excellent job as the unofficial M.C. for the Tournament. Along with Layne, thank you's are passed along with his (Go-fors) team of Gerry Dykens, Ron (Easy) Eastcott, Danny MacKay and Steve Masters.

To all the people and businesses who donated prizes for the Tournament, thank you very much.

To all the people who helped in any way and all the players who took part in the tournament, to make it the huge success it was, thank you very much. (Thanks Gerry, Ron, Terry & Iris).

Finally a very special thank you is passed along to Everett McCully for the beautiful bench (Peppy's Perch) he made and donated to the Golf Course with the following inscription.

"Peppy's Perch- This bench is dedicated to everyone's friend and our golf buddy, Doug Peppard, who left us far too soon. (Feb 27, 2008). It was crafted by Doug's friend Everett McCully. So sit down, relax, and while you're here in this place of serenity, take a moment or two to remember someone close to you who left earlier than you would have wished. Thank you for your time and thoughts!"

Happy Anniversary wishes for July are passed along to Laura and Fred MacKinnon, Jane and Glen MacDorman, Marcia and Norm Eastcott, Mary and Jack Barley, Betty and Clare Reid, Betty and Robert Hill, Shelly and Mark McCully, Connie and Sam Worthington.

Happy Birthday wishes for July are passed along to Valerie Yantha, Harvey Adams, Bill Wood, Bruce and Wayne Higgins, Earl Harvey, Ron Totten, Debbie Buchanan, Arlene Bates (The #1 Country Music fan), Patricia Case, Jim Adshade, Eric McCully, Ed Skinner, Doris McCully (That's a lot of candles this year Doris), Helen Eastcott, Jeff Mellroy and Jimmy Totten.

Please say a prayer for our troops in Afghanistan and their families.

Please don't forget to thank a Veteran; it is because of their sacrifices that we are able to enjoy our freedom and our country.
