from private property at nearby Sand Point to its new location.

The annual lighthouse day festivities are an important fundraiser for the preservation society. Dignitaries on hand to help celebrate included Mayor Bob Taylor, local councillor, Tom Taggart and

MLA, Karen Casey.

With the Five Islands Lighthouse as its focal point, this day-use park is in a spectacular location directly across from the Five Islands. The park has picnic facilities, a ship playground, walking paths, beach access and ample parking.

the park includes all five islands as well as the Old Wife (part of Five Islands Provincial Park), The Brothers (Two Islands) Cape Blomidon and Cape Split. Judy Bristow-Roberts, local community volunteer and often photographer of local events, supplied the photos accompanying this article.

Outdoor art activities are always enjoyable for children, as was this segment at the Five Islands Lighthouse Park fun day and plaque unveiling. (Judy Bristow-Roberts Photo)

It was a hot summer day enjoyed by all who attended special activities at Five Islands Lighthouse Park. The municipality has invested a considerable amount into developing the park and infrastructure on the 20 acre site. (Judy Bristow-Roberts Photo)
