Parrsboro Old Home Week Festivities & Parade

For the first time in memory during Parrsboro's Old Home Week the rides were never interrupted by rain, nor was the grounds muddy from night-time showers. The fine weather resulted in larger crowds enjoying OHW, which is sponsored by Parrsboro Lions & Leos. A great time was had by all ages. Photos by Lawrence R. Nicoll, Landscape Photographer.

Parrsboro's annual Old Home Week parade went off with some of the best continuous good weather in memory. No event had to be changed, and the children had a wonderful time either watching or participating.
