Blake Maskell climbs through the mud at the finish line. On vacation from Ottawa, this was his first Spartan Race and he was pleased with his finish.

Leslie Wilson, President & General Manager at Ski Wentworth, heads across the start line with the last race group for the day. She says it was quite a challenge but a lot of fun joining her team for the race.

All ages compete in the Spartan Race, making it an event the whole family can enjoy.

Selica Sevigny, Co-Founder of Reebok Spartan Race Canada, gets a group of racers to show their enthusiasm at the startline.

10TH Annual Murder Mystery Dinner Theater

Once again, The Age of Sail held a successful fundraiser with their Murder Mystery Dinner Theater. The one night event sells 65 tickets and the play and evening is put on entirely by volunteers. A wonderful 3 course meal with Roast Pork Loin was served in between acts. Door prizes donated by Terry and Susan at The Port Greville Country Market, John and Krista of Fancy Foods Inc and The Age of Sail were drawn as well as a top prize for guessing the murderer donated by Leigh at Wheatons Irving and the Age of Sail.

Much thanks to all our volunteers who worked so hard to make the night a success, all who donated prizes and mostly to all who joined us for this fun evening.

Other successful events for the weekend were a night of story telling by Suzanne Bartheaux Burchell and the Sunday Brunch.

Oralee O'Byrne is Curator/Manager Age of Sail Heritage Centre and Museum
