Canada Day in Great Village - June 30th turned out to be a gorgeous for Canada Day celebrations this year. A parade was held from the Elementary School to Faith Baptist Church, followed by games of chance, wagon rides, entertainment and much more! (Harrington Photos)

Piper Dan Wesley leads the Canada Parade to Faith Baptist Church grounds.

Mason McMasters tried his luck at the sucker pull.

Lots of bikers took part in the parade.

There was a great turnout for the antique car show at Great Village Canada Day and this unique little car was getting a lot of attention.

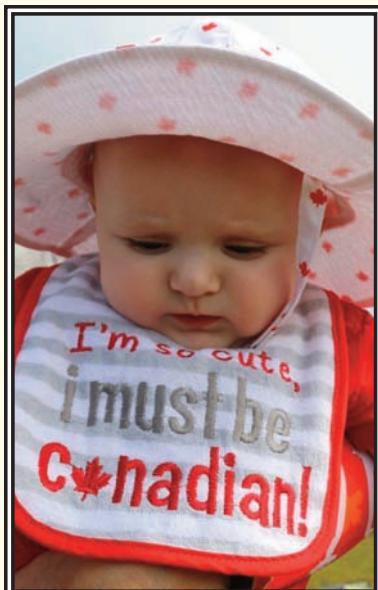

Bringing up the rear of the parade was this cute little biker. Blake Julien was enjoying his moment on tour.

A hole in one! Kegan Bergman delivered a perfect putt.

Little Caleb McMaster sailed into cuteness in the Canada Day parade.

Malia Osborne was just so cute she must be Canadian!

Young Dylan Smith was all business as he approached the hill to Faith Baptist Church. Pedal power all the way!

The photobooth was a great place to snap a photo showing off your Canadian spirit.

All the kids loved a turn at putting out the fire.
