

Plein Air Festival Very Successful

By Lawrence R Nicoll

They say it was another VERY successful Plein Air festival in Parrsboro, I saw at least 30 eager participants creating some marvellous works of art

The incredible local scenery was well captured, it was a thrill to watch their canvases come to life from the very places my cameras have sought that same beauty.

The draw of the area also had a non-participant, Annie Dennett from Kemptville, NS also came to create some of her own works of art.

The artistry of Parrsboro continues to be draw artists and people who simply come to see our amazing area.

The Bay of Fundy waters in front of Ottawa House Historical Museum provided an opportune for this Plein Air participant. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)

Mucky sand, receding tide, salt water and lone boater would be turned into an amazing scene by this Plein Air participant. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)
