IN MEMORY CECIL WILBERT RUSHTON

It's been five years since you've been gone
I miss you every day
Without you here beside me
I cannot find my way.
I do the things that I should do
They hardly mean a thing
They say that life goes on
But it's hard to know the pain.
I know that I must bear it
You told me to be strong
But Oh I get so lonely
They say that life goes on.
I'll talk to you tomorrow
For now I'll say good night
And again I'll have my memories
When I turn out the light.

PRATT, Leland Martin

In loving memory of Lee Pratt, who was taken home to be with his Lord on November 15, 2007.

His back was bent and weary
His voice was tried and low
His sword was worn from battle
And his steps were getting slow.
But he used to walk on water
I rut seemed that way to me
I know he move some mountains
And never left his knees
He's won his wars, so
Make sure Heaven's table has room
For at least one more.
Another soldier's coming home.

Sadly missed and forever in our thoughts,
Living Wife, Audrey, Darlene,
Yopie, Melissa and Stephen,
Rebecca and Phil.

CARD OF THANKS

Burns

Words cannot express my sincere thanks for friends and family for cards, phone calls, flowers, donations to charities since the recent death of my sister, Muriel, whose funeral was held on October 28th at the Colchester Funeral Home.

Sister Grace Reynolds, Truro.

Hollis

The family of the late Frances Hollis wish to express our thanks for the support shown to them since Frances' passing. Thanks to all who visited, called, send cards and made donations in Frances' memory. Thanks go to all who cared for Fannie, both at home and in the hospital, especially the VON nurses and homecare workers and all the 4th floor nurses and staff. Special thanks to Rev Florence Antle-Brison for her visits to Fannie in hospital. Thanks to Rev. Don MacQueen, Soloist Joyce Starratt, the choir and organist and palbearers. Thanks also the staff at Colchester Community Funeral Home and ladies of the church, who provided the lunch.

Marie, Jimmie, Doreen and Glenn,
Donnie, Patti, Archie and Brandon.

Cindy Lou (Carroll) Worthington

Our family has changed forever since Cindy's sudden passing in July. Our sincere thank you to all who took the time to call, send cards and emails, for the visits, the food, the help with the lunch after the service and the charitable donations in Cindy's memory. For all the thoughts, prayers, tears and hugs, we needed all of you to get through this. To Rev. Don McQueen for his compassion and beautiful service and to all who were able to attend that day, it helped so much. We feel truly blessed. We were completely overwhelmed by all the love and support from so many family and friends. Cindy would have been so humbled.

Thank you, Verna, Kyle, Rebecca,
Donna and Bruce.
