This Day in November

*A sky so blue
with clouds of white,
The wind so cold,
with arctic bite.*

*A day so cold,
with ground so bare,
awaiting the snow
That's promised here.*

*And Jack Frost comes
His touch is sure,
So winter's coming
Now Autumn's over.*

Parrsboro Band Concert - DECEMBER 19TH

The Parrsboro Citizen's Band Annual Christmas Concert will be held on Monday, December 19th at the band hall commencing at 7 pm. Performing Christmas tunes will be the Parrsboro Citizen's Band, the Parrsboro Citizen's Junior Band and the Elastic Big Band.

Admission $10.00, includes Christmas refreshments. Tickets available at: From Away, Sweet Briar Boutique, Parrsboro Castle Hardware and at the door.

There will be door prizes and the "Little Bit of Everything" basket raffle will be drawn at the concert. The public is invited to celebrate the Christmas season with the Parrsboro Band Association and see the renovations which have taken place at the hall this past year.

92 year old Mrs. Jean Lloyd is shown being sworn as a member of Royal Canadian Legion Debert Branch # 106 by the President, Comrade Ron Eastcott. She is believed to be the oldest new member ever sworn in. She was born on November 6, 1919 in Lancashire (now part of Merseyside) England and came to Canada as a War Bride with her late husband WWII Veteran and former Debert Legion member James Lloyd.
