

Great Village Remembrance Day Service 11 a.m., November 11th

Photos by Linda Harrington

Sgt At Arms, Arnold Williams, salutes our National flag during the singing of "O Canada".

Dan Wesley leads Old Scotia Pipes and Drums into the Remembrance Day Service. Dan played a lament on the pipes at both the Great Village and Londonderry services.

Logan Spencer (right), President of Legion Branch #72, welcomes everyone to the Remembrance Day Service in Great Village while Color Party members Bruce Zwicker and Merton Eagles and Sgt at Arms Arnold Williams stand at ease. The service was moved to Saint James United Church due to the heavy wind and rains.

Payton Pugsley, Olivia Pugley and Carly Fielding (1 to r) were kept very busy handing out bulletins to the capacity crowd at Saint James United Church.

Fred Richard (right) assists Councillor Tom Taggart as he lays a wreath on behalf of the Municipality of Colchester. Councillor Taggart layed a wreath on behalf of the Municipality later the same day in Londonderry, as well.

Three members of the RCMP, dressed in their colorful Red Serge, attended the Remembrance Day Service in Great Village.

Jenna Otterson and Hunter Adams layed a wreath in Remembrance of Those Who Served on behalf of Great Village Elementary School.

Great Village Elementary School students Zachary Dykstra and Cheyanne McLellan look at art work their Grade 2/3 class made to decorate the school for Remembrance Day.

Fred Richard assists Robert Cooper as he lays a wreath on behalf of the Province of Nova Scotia.

Londonderry Remembrance Day Service 2 p.m., November 11th

Members of Old Scotia Pipes and Drums lead the Remembrance Day parade out of the Londonderry Community Centre.

Royal Canadian Branch #72 President Logan Spencer salutes during the Last Post, while Branch Paster Ken Kennedy stands alongside.

Members of Royal Canadian Legion Branch #72 and Branch #106 made up the Color Party at the Londonderry Remembrance Day Service.

Fred Richard accompanies John Jessome as he lays a wreath in Memory of Those Who Lost Their Lives in WWII on behalf of the Citizens of Londonderry.

Fred Richard assists Dan Richard as he lays a wreath in Memory of Those Who Lost Their Lives in WWI on behalf of the Citizens of Londonderry.

Great granddaughters Megan and Skylar McGill lay a wreath in memory of brothers John Edward and Norman Cecil Langille of the 85th Battalion, WWI and Joseph Arthur Langille, North Nova Scotia Highlanders, WWII.

Long reach! Ceilidh Mailman helps Sandy Mailman as he tries to place his poppy in the soldiers helmet during the Remembrance Day Service.

MAINLAND DENTURE CLINIC

Complete and Partial Dentures, Quick Repairs and Relines
ALL DENTAL PLANS ACCEPTED

George Spyridis, D.D.
Quality, Service and Affordability
No Referral Required

187 Queen St.
843-4187

SENIOR ONE BEDROOM APARTMENTS AVAILABLE

Subsidized housing is available for people 58 years of age and older at MacCaul Villa, Great Village.

This building has a newly installed elevator for easy access. Heat is included in the rent charge.

For more information or to apply please contact Cobequid Housing Authority at 893-7235.

CLARKE
ROAD TRANSPORT INC.

-Owner Operators-
We Deliver More Miles, More Money, More Home Time!

Clarke Road Transport Inc. has great opportunities for Can/US O/O's in both our Van and Flatbed Divisions. If you possess a valid class 1 licence with a late model tractor and have 2 years verifiable experience with a clean driving record give us a call! We provide paid insurance, industry leading fuel surcharge, and the miles and revenue you need! Don't delay - these positions will not last long!

CONTACT:
Vaughn Hatcher 1-866-360-7233 ext. 2563