

Londonderry Remembrance Day Service November 11th

Photos by Linda Harrington

A combined Legion Color Party is the backdrop for wreaths and crosses adorned with poppies.

Two year old Connor Spencer places his poppy in the soldier's helmet.

Great Village Fire Brigade was well represented on parade.

Srgt-at-Arms Arnold Williams, Branch #72, and Earl Harvey, Branch #106 lead the parade in Londonderry.

Comrades Fred Richard, Ken Kennedy and Logan Spencer salute during the Last Post.

CPO J. Carroll Navy League Cadet William Eisses and Kaelyn Beazley, grade 4 students at Great Village Elementary, placed a wreath on behalf of the school.

Marching to the cenotaph for the Londonderry Remembrance Day Service.

Dan Wesley plays a lament, while Ed Langille looks on.

MLA Karen Casey, is assisted by Leading Seaman Ashley Richards, as she lays a wreath on behalf of the Province of Nova Scotia.

Mike Taylor, President of Legion Branch#106, Debert and Leading Seaman Ashley Richards salute after placing a wreath.

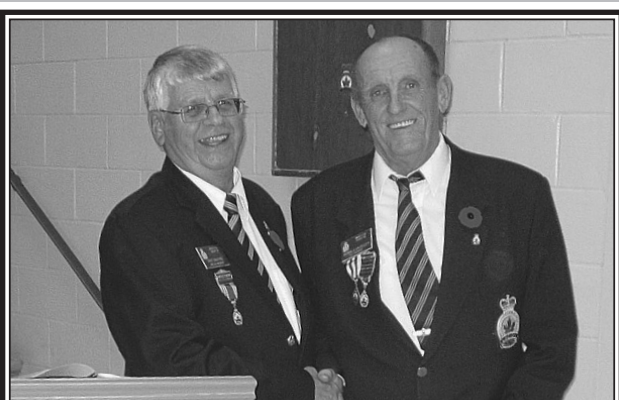

Leo Rushton places a wreath on behalf of the Citizens of Londonderry in remembrance of those who lost their lives in WWII.

Chaplin Ken Kennedy read scripture and prayers during the Service.

Debert Remembrance Day Service November 11th

Photos by Jean MacQueen

Debert Legion's Honours and Awards Chair, Dave MacPhee, presented long service pin for 35 years to Comrade Ronald Eastcott.

RCMP, officers in uniform and Debert Fire Brigade members always play a prominent role in Debert's services on November 11th.

Adrian Murphy and Gordon McCully, the two WWII veterans who took the salute at the March Past during Remembrance Day services in Debert are pictured following the service.

Debert's Remembrance Day service always includes a large parade.

Under sunny skies a large crowd watched as wreaths were laid during Debert's Remembrance Day service.

During recent years, so many wreaths have been laid during Debert's service, Legion members have constructed two special racks to handle an additional 50 wreaths.