Peter and Kate Vandermeulen have not missed, in the past twelve years, laying a wreath in memory of their great grandparents Ellis & Betti Parker. They were only 5 or 6 years old when they first started doing this at the Remembrance Day service in Economy. Their father Patrick Vandermeulen plays "The Last Post" on his trumpet at the service as well. (Carole Dibbon Photo)

PARRSBORO Remembrance Day Service

Ceremonies in the Legion hall prior to marching to the cenotaph.

Ages 5-6 Parrsboro area Sparks attended the service.

It was warm and sunny as spectators filled the sidewalks to watch Parrsboro's Remembrance Day Parade.

2014 Remembrance day was well attended in Parrsboro, as in previous years. The morning starts with ceremonies at the Legion, followed by the parade to the cenotaph. This year our veterans were brought to focus with the Quebec and Ottawa tragedies. In any year there is a good turnout of citizens, but this year the turnout was even larger to honour those who served and continue to serve. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photos)
