Telefilm Canada Selects Parrsboro

By Jacquie Wilson

Telefilm Canada has selected "The Hall", operated by the Parrsboro Band Association, as one of its locations for this year's Shortest Day Film Festival on December 20th! Over 50 countries participate in this celebration of short film annually and last year Parrsboro was one of 91 venues cross-country.

Eight individual Canadian films (both Dramas & Comedies - our rating 14+) will be screened Sunday

December 20th commencing at 7:30 pm. The Hall is located at 44 King Street, Parrsboro. Admission is by donation and a canteen will be available including fresh popcorn! Like us on Face book and visit our website at www.thehall.ca

Bass River Abuzz for Christmas

By Wendy Cox

The hunters are in full swing now but very few reports of anyone getting anything. I think the poor deer had a very hard winter and spring and a lot did not survive. But the "actual" reports won't come out until the last day of the season at morning coffee club!

Those crazy bass fishermen are still at it. Some hunt in the morning and fish in the afternoon tide. All I can say is brrr...!

Bass River is ready to decorate. The Bass River Heritage Society will be lighting up the park on Dec 11 at 6:30pm. Come out and enjoy some hot chocolate and cookies and get in the Christmas spirit.

On Saturday, December 12th at 1:30 spend the afternoon entertained at Victoria Hall at an old fashioned Christmas Variety Concert and Bake Sale. The hall has a beautiful new steel roof a big thanks to all who helped make this happen before win-

Valerie Taylor presented Marla McNutt with the 2015 Donald S. Cox and Ethel (Cox) White Memorial Scholarship on behalf of Catherine and Donna Cox.

Erin Richardson displays one of the five delicious cakes up for auction. Money raised from the cake auction, silent and live auction items, will go towards the 2016 Bursary Fund.

ter. They are working on the heating system which will be up and running by concert time. If you are interested in performing at the variety show please contact Wendy at 902-647-2720 or Bill at 902-647-2255.

A Christmas Auction and Bake Sale will be held at Riverside United Church on Saturday Nov. 28 starting at 10am. Any donations can be dropped off at church Friday evening or Saturday morning by 9:30am.

Have a safe and happy Christmas.
