MacCaul Villa Notes

By Hazel Hill

Halloween is over again for this year. We had about 65 big and little visitors. It was a very quiet Halloween. To all celebrating a birthday this month - Happy Birthday! CALA classes are held at the Villa every Wednesday afternoon.

Faith Baptist church holds Bible study in the lounge every other Thursday evening. All are invited to attend. At the end of every month, birthdays are celebrated with a cake provided by Faith Baptist church members.

Sharon Roode has been a patient in the Colchester East-Hants Medical Centre. Sharon is home now.

Bernice Kaulback is recovering very well from

Remembrance Day service was held in Great Village at the cenotaph and was well attended. The service in Ottawa seems to grow larger in numbers with the passing years.

On Saturday November 13th Tammy and Danny Garnham took Shirley Ryan and Kevin Field to the Hunter's breakfast in Londonderry. What a nice treat!

Visiting me on November 15th was my son Carleton and Thelma. Thanks to all who sent wishes my way for a speedy recovery from bronchitis. I am much better now.
