It was a full house at the Economy Rec Centre on November 26th with many prominent musicians volunteering their time to fund raise for Cape Breton flood victims from the Thanksgiving Day storm. The event was organized by Bill and Natalie Elliott. Performers included Jimmy Rankin, J P Cormier, David Gunning, Tom Swift, Tony and Shannon Quinn, and The Elliotts. (Photography by Maurice Rees)

The stars of the November 26th Cape Breton Flood Victim fundraisers were the performers shown above.

Jimmy Rankin gave a stellar perform to a packed house. Didn't take long until they were dancing in the aisles.

Jimmy Rankin stops long enough to pose with Bill Elliott.

Tom Swift who now resides in Halifax was pleased to be part of the fund raiser.

David Gunning gave a strong performance.

Fiddlers J P Cormier and Shannon Quinn involved in a deep discussion.

Back stage Jimmy Rankin and Shannon Quinn tune up, while J P Cormier listens.

Mike Elliott, stops by Jimmy Rankin to extend a welcome to Economy. On stage Rankin said, "How come it took you so long?"

Tony Quinn, who's a legend on the circuit, now teams up with daughter, Shannon.
