The Remembrance Day Parade, held at Branch 106, can best be described as a huge success. From the laying of the wreaths and crosses, to the march past, where comrades Gordon McCully, Eddie Murphy and Harry Wilson took the salute, along with the Debert complex and staff. To the MC at the Cenotaph, who did a fine job, thank you and how about the two sentries at the Cenotaph. To our Silver Cross Mother, Mrs. Virginia Roberts, thank you very much.
