

Bob Pash signs the Oath of Office after being sworn in by Mayor Christine Blair as the new councillor for District 9. He was elected with a wide majority in the October 21 by-election. (Rees Photo)

Filming for the Truro Nissan Hubtown Ad Challenge took place at Masstown Market on Nov. 5th. Director Mia Perry (center) gets some creative guidance from Canadian TV and film Icon, Jonathan Torrens. Five students were chosen to have their advertising proposals made into commercials. Masstown Market was one of the five business sponsors. (Harrington Photo)

Deadline for the January Shoreline Journal is December 12

They Never Shared a Home

But together they were still a home
They didn't all share parents
But they were the family they'd never known

They may not have grown up in the same town
Or province, or sometimes country
But they were still the closest friends
That anyone could ever be

This is for every soldier
Who fought in any land
The unnamed friends and family
Who have the same marked up hands

I hope you've found your peace
And I hope you can now see
That your life wasn't in vain
Because it made us free

You gave up your lives for strangers
You gave up your life for me
So I will remember you with these words
And thank you eternally

I won't let your life be for naught
No matter your name, religion, or speech
I freely stand thanks to you
And truly be me.

Written by: Bethany Mackinnon
Portipique, Nova Scotia
(see story and photos on page 11)

DEBERT Remembrance Day Service

Don MacQueen photos

A large crowd is always present on November 11th in Debert.

Leona Harvey and Marcia Eastcott served hot chowder at the Debert Legion following the parade.

Nova Scotia Cadets Pipe and Drums band participating in the Remembrance Day service in Debert. (Don MacQueen Photo)

Ethan Totton read "In Flanders Field". (Don MacQueen Photo)

Gathering at the Branch for fellowship with Chowder and other refreshments. (Don MacQueen Photo)

Newly elected councillor Bob Pash lays a wreath on behalf of the County of Colchester. (Don MacQueen Photo)

WW II veterans Adrian Murphy, MM and Gordon McCully, RCAF received the salute at the Debert Parade. (Don MacQueen Photo)

Mr. Don Davidson layed a wreath in memory of his brother, Frank, the only one of those from Debert who was lost in WW II. (Don MacQueen Photo)

Jim Seaton read a poem that he wrote entitled "Remembrance Stays". (Don MacQueen Photo)

John Ross & Sons Ltd.

"LEST WE FORGET"

Metal, Bottle Exchange & Enviro Depot
7 Cummane, Truro
902-893-9429

BRIGHT SPACIOUS ONSITE CAFE • VENTILATED SMOKING ROOMS • LATEST TECHNOLOGY

LEGENDS
Gaming & Convention
Centre

15 Legends Drive, Hwy. 102, Exit 13a, Truro Power Centre, Millbrook, NS
www.legendsgamingcentre.com • 1-888-608-1754

ANNIVERSARY
BINGO
December 9, 2017

$200.00
$300.00
$400.00
Regular Games