VERY IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT November 2017

Joe Atkinson and Dan McDonald are pleased to announce Atkinson Welding and Machining Ltd has purchased the blueberry harvester components division from Musquodoboit Valley Resource Supply Ltd., combining the harvester parts with the welding and machining is a natural fit. Dan is pleased Joe is involved as he knows Joe to be very conscientious and service minded and that the business will continue to grow and prosper under Joe's leadership. All the current parts and components inventory will be moved to Joe's shop in Southampton in the next few days. Musquodoboit Valley Resource Supply Ltd. has a long history with the harvesters, going back to the days of Lloyd Weatherbee and Doug Bragg in the early 1980's, many of the current designs are the result of the consultation and engineering between Dan and Lloyd (and Brian and Ralph). Please support Joe in this new venture, he can be reached at;
