DEBERT Remembrance Day

Photos by Don MacQueen

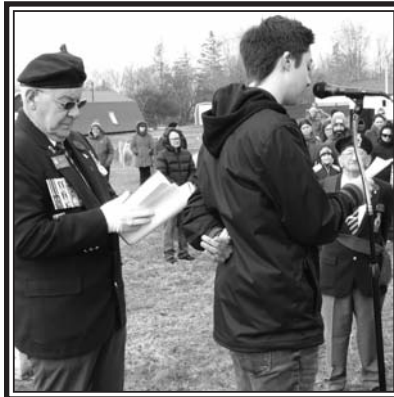

Eugene Adshade was Emcee for Debert Remembrance Day service.

Memorial Cross parents Angela and Tom Reid, laid the wreath of behalf of those who lost a child in war.

Councillor Robert Pash laid wreaths on behalf of County of Colchester and as president of Debert Branch Royal Canadian Legion.

Ethan Totten reads "In Flanders Fields".

Comrades Gerry Dykens and George Cooke reviewed the parade and received the Salute as the parade passed the reviewing stand at Debert court.

Leona Harvey serviced hot chowder to those gathered at the branch following the parade. Many gathered at the Branch for warm refreshments for the parade.

A large crowd watched the parade to cenotaph and laying of wreaths service.
