

Lawrence Nicoll's story and several photos about Burchell Fulmore, Economy created the most interest to any story published about a senior citizen in West Colchester for a long time. Several people called wondering where to get extra copies of the November issue. Another person called to say how impressed they were with the story, and expresses their admiration for Burchell and his love of antique vehicles. The photo above was submitted by Tom Kayser, who stated, "This is a photo collection of Bert I put together a couple of years ago". (Tom Kayser Photo)

Think Outside the Box with United Way's Campaign

The annual Community Campaign for the United Way of Colchester County is up and running and looking for your support! The last two years have been difficult for many people throughout Colchester County and we've discovered that just dropping back to the way things were before will not fully meet the new challenges as we move forward.

We need to Think Outside the Box and offer innovative and more relevant support to our community. With donations from businesses and individuals, the United Way's Community Fund offers several funding options to local agencies who, in turn, offer program and services throughout the county to help address the needs and challenges facing our neighbours and friends.

Join with us to Think Outside the Box and support these agencies who are working on our behalf to build stronger, healthier and happier communities. A strong and healthy community benefits all of us on several levels - mental and physical health challenges are less of a hit to our healthcare system, and economic growth and prosperity is built up. We all win when we're all strong and healthy. Give to the Community Fund today and see your community shine!

To learn more about the United Way or to make a donation, contact us at 902-895-9313, coordinator@colchester.unitedway.ca or visit www.unitedwaycolchester.ca. Unwrapped gifts can be delivered to: United Way of Colchester County, 2-90 Esplanade Street, Truro NS B2N 2K3.
