

GREAT VILLAGE Remembrance Day

Photos by Linda Harrington

The Legion Service of Remembrance followed Covid Protocols with the wreaths all laid prior to the service.

RCMP Constable Terry Brown and Sergeant-at-arms Wilfred Crowe salute during the playing of our National Anthem.

Peter Vandermuelen played the Last Post.

Logan Spencer told an interesting story about a plane crash during the war, not far from the Cenotaph in Great Village, with the four men on board all losing their lives. Fred Richard who assisted leading the service listens intently to Logan's story.

There was a slightly smaller crowd out this year. Those in attendance appreciated the assistance of an RCMP officer managing the traffic flow during the Service of Remembrance.

Peter Vandermuelen played the Last Post. Comrade Bruce Zwicker lowers the flag during the playing of the Last Post.
