

Remembrance Day Service at Veterans Memorial Park

Photos by Carol McNutt

Veterans Memorial Park, Bass River was one of the few local Remembrance Day Services which were held outdoors. A large crowd, which seems to grow significantly each year, attended the service under threatening weather.

Chief Petty Officer 1st Class John Gilley (Ret'd), Sub-lieutenant Sophie Gilley take a moment to remember.

With many years of volunteering to many local organizations Anita MacLellan, Economy takes a moment to remember, while Sub-lieutenant Lacey Gilley attends.

Many Fulton family members have names inscribed on the monuments as David Fulton & family remember.

Marlee & Luther vandenHoek, whose family emigrated to Nova Scotia decades ago, represents the family while Sub-lieutenant Sophie Gilley attends.

Representing the Municipality of Colchester, County Counsellor Lisa Patton and Gregory Marr laid the county's wreath while Sub-lieutenant Lacey Gilley attended.

Remembrance Day Service at the Debert Legion

The Debert Remembrance Day Service was moved indoors at the Legion on November 11th. The service was followed by social time with refreshments during which Marcia Eastcott served the chowder.

The front of Debert Legion provided a great display of wreaths laid during the service.

Marcia Eastcott volunteered to serve the chowder following Debert's indoor service.

Teddy Masee was Trumpeter at the November 11th service.

Avery Johnson and Kali Ingram read Flanders Fields.

Eugene Adshade was Master of Ceremonies.

The colour party had to make do with a different configuration.

Empty Seats were a scarce commodity when Debert's service moved indoors.
