

23 Fundy Witches Invade Parrsboro

By Maurice Rees
(Based on notes from Lawrence Nicoll and Bertha Harrison)

Maurice, a wonderful event I missed. The gang and many children all dressed up and walked up main street from the cenotaph to the band stand and danced and had a great time.

All credit to Bertha Harrison for pics and article. Lawrence said, "Never saw a notice and missed this event myself". The following information was found on Bertha Harrison's posting on Facebook:

Last Halloween 2022 five of us gals: Diana Hudson, Colleen Cashing, Heather Estabrooks Zschogner, Tea FaLa and myself, Bertha MacAloney Harrison were together and thought this would be a good event to put on in Parrsboro. ....thank-you to 23 Fundy Witches for making this happen with lots of practicing and getting together we pulled it off...your costumes and brooms were beautiful girls and we also met some new gals and made new friends.

Thank-you: Jo-Ann C. Hunter for coming aboard to be our leader to do the dance with us; Our MC, Garnet Hendren and to Andrew Lloyd for doing our music for us and our better half's who helped to set up for us and tear down. Also thank-you: To the three Witches who came from Sackville, NB to join us; To Chris McGyver and Jim Kaulbach for taking photos and videos.

Thank-you to all the Witches who made food for our lovely pot luck gathering afterwards. We, the Fundy Witches would like to thank each and everyone of you who came out to watch our dance and also who donated to the food bank ...and to Mother Nature for a beautiful day.

New Winter Hours at Museum

On November 1st, 2023 until May 20th, 2024 winter hours will be in effect at the Fundy Geological Museum in Parrsboro. New hours are: Open Monday to Friday 10am - 5pm, closed on weekends and holidays.

There is Free admission for anyone with a BOM postal code.

Protect the people around you.
Get your flu and COVID-19 vaccines.

To book an appointment online, visit:
NovaScotia.ca/Vaccination

NOVA SCOTIA

To book online

For more flu information

