

Marilyn Roberts, Tatamagouche has spent many years volunteering and helping her community. She was presented the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medal, presented by MLA Tom Taggart and Hon Premier Tim Houston. (Contributed)

First it was her family, then Layton's General Store, but an ongoing love of contributing to the community was always on Great Village's Mededith Layton's mind. She was among the group honoured at a Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medal presentation from MLA Tom Taggart and Hon Premier Tim Houston. (Contributed)

Great Village's Crystal Blair gained greater prominence during CoVid-19, when she kept her Glenholme Petro-Pass restaurant open and offered free meals to truckers, who were having problems to find restaurant or truck-stops open. Across Canada, truckers renamed her "Angel". She closed the Glenholme location and late September opened "Angels on the corner" in Great Village. Her dedication to community and truckers earned her the honour of being presented the Queen's Platinum Jubilee Medal, from MLA Tom Taggart and Hon Premier Tim Houston in Debert on January 13th.
