

The Harrington Forestry Battle with the Remanents of Hurricane Fiona PHOTO FEATURE

"It's a twisted mess and I don't know if I can clean it all up", Charles Harrington said of the mess in his woodlot following Fiona. (Harrington Photo)

Charles Harrington, Glenholme is hooking up another six tree lengths he has salvaged from his woodlot after Fiona passed through in late September. (Harrington Photo)

Charles Harrington navigates a tight turn with more tree lengths. The ruts created by the tractor indicates the number of trips he has made back and forth to the same place. (Harrington Photo)

Charles pulled tree lengths of salvaged wood out of the woods, and since there is no snow in this blueberry field it is getting covered with these tree lengths salvaged after Fiona did it's number on woodland in Glenholme. (Harrington Photo)
