MacLEAN, Janet Elaine - Age 71, Debert. It is with great sadness that we announce the peaceful passing of Janet Elaine (Fisher) MacLean on Friday, January 13, 2023, at home. Janet was born and raised in Toronto, Ontario. She was a daughter of the late George and Elaine Fisher of Peterborough, Ontario. Janet was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister and mother-in-law. She is survived by her husband, David MacLean; daughters, Patty (Louis) Robichaud and Paula (Craig) Betts; grandchildren, Jocelyn, John David (JD), Brooklyn Robichaud, Brandon and Zack Betts and her brother, Lorne Fisher of Burlington Ontario. She was predeceased by her sister, Bonnie Lloyd and brothers, Ron and David Fisher. Aside from love, a thread that was woven and connected the family was humour. Humour at both appropriate times and also inappropriate times, which is where Janet earned her nickname from her grandchildren as, "bad Nana". As fate would have it, a small-town boy went to Toronto and met a young city girl. The stars aligned one December night back in 1966 at Toronto City Hall. As he skated by, she caught his eye in a crowd. This beautiful love story built on love, respect and friendship lasted many decades. She was the love of his life, and he was hers. Janet's greatest love was her family. She loved her tranquil oasis that she and dad built together in the backyard. She loved her sunrises and sunsets and bonfires with her family. She loved sitting by the pool while listening to Motown and the wind in the trees. A special thank you to Dr. Blaauwendraat and Cindy from the Truro Collaborative Practice, as well as the Palliative Care Team, Dr. Smith and Angela McDonnell, who provided such heartfelt, exceptional care of our mother and tremendous support to the entire family. In Janet's memory, you may donate to the Colchester Food Bank or give blood and help save a life. A celebration of life will be held in May of 2023, details to be announced. Arrangements have been entrusted to Colchester Community Funeral Home, 512 Willow St., Truro, NS. Online condolences available at www.ColchesterCommunity.com
