Wentworth Cenotaph Ceremony Attracts Large Crowd

By Hope Bridgewater

The Wentworth Cenotaph stands on a hill as a symbol honouring all those people who have served in the Canadian Armed Forces. The Wentworth Community Development Council and the Wentworth Recreation Centre as hosts for the Cenotaph Ceremony once again were grateful to have Faye Henderson as coordinator and spokesperson.

The Ceremony began with the singing of "O Canada" by Sharon Miller and progressed to the Last Post, two minutes of silence, and Reveille. Pastor Darryl Dykens recited the famous poem by Robert Laurence Binyon, "They shall not grow old... We will remember them." Then outside on the hill the large crowd attending the service, including members of the Wentworth Volunteer Fire Department, repeated the words, "We will remember them." Pastor Dykens followed with a prayer and then everyone said the Lord's Prayer together.

Next came the laying of the wreaths at the foot of the Cenotaph in respect for those in the community who had served in the military: Dominion of Canada: placed by John Conroy; Municipality of Cumberland: placed by Sharon Miller; Royal Canadian Legion: placed by Bob Smith; N. S. Federation of Labour: placed by President Rick Clarke; Wentworth Volunteer Fire Department: placed by Arden Little, Deputy Fire Chief; Wentworth Recreation Centre: placed by Joe Patriquin.

Ski Wentworth: placed by Greg Wilson; Friends of the Old Valley School: placed by Andy Hunt; Wentworth Consolidated Elementary School: placed by Nate & Bella MacLeod; Wentworth Community Development Council: Debby Alexander; Andy Elliott: presented & placed by son Wayne Elliott;

Sgt. Walton Little: presented by wife Ida and placed by son Ken; Sgt. John Curry: presented & placed by daughter-in-law Betty Curry; Bernard Gower: presented & placed by wife Marion & daughter Heather; Ivan Crawford: presented by wife Ivy & placed by Helen Feeley; Bedford Palmer: presented by wife Florence & placed by son Kevin.

Uncles Jerome Crowley, Phillip Crowley & Tommy Giles: presented by Pearl, Judy, Michael, & Jocelyn & placed by Jocelyn Morris; Raymond Rushton: presented by his family & placed by son Tim; Willard Lynds: presented by son Edison & placed by grandsons Austin, Adrian, & Cameron; Hershaw Stewart: presented by granddaughter Weewana Sprague & placed by Kevin Sprague.

In memory of uncle Vaughan Ripley: presented and placed by Harold Giddens and Uncles Doug, Gordon, & Lorne Henderson: presented by nieces Helen, Debby, Sharon & Faye & placed by great-grandniece Jackie Francis

Pastor Dykens said the Benediction and Blessing of Food to be obtained as a noon lunch at the Recreation Centre across the road where there was a lunch of sandwiches, salads, sweets, hot chocolate, tea, and coffee which Mary Anne Jay and her volunteer kitchen staff expertly provided.

On Sunday, November 10, the congregations of the Wentworth United Church and Wentworth Baptist Church met together at the United Church in a Remembrance Day service with the theme "Less We Forget."

During the service the Last Post, two minutes of silence, and Reveille were observed. Members of the Wentworth Volunteer Fire Department attended. At the end of the church service, members of the congregation walked up the church aisle to each place a poppy on a cross.

Then, a lunch was served in the church hall downstairs for the congregation and much of the talk was of the next day's Cenotaph Ceremony.
