

The steeple on the Parrsboro United Baptist Church was beyond repair and the cost of replacing was prohibitive. It was decided to remove the steeple and build a shorter one over the bell tower. Hubtown Crane from Truro was chosen to remove and replace. (Cathy Milligan Photo)

The spirit of Christmas is alive 'n well at Parrsboro in the Nicoll House. A night time view attracts many people to look at Lawrence and Carol's work. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)

After dropping off a supply of new presents, the reindeer are set to take off. Every year Lawrence changes things, which appears to draw many cars that stop to look. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)

Hours of work went into creating this masterpiece. As two grown kids, Lawrence and Carol enjoy every moment taken to decorate the interior of their house hoping it helps to grow the spirit of love and Happiness throughout the season. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)
