Sponsored by Parrsboro Lions Club, the 2019 Parrsboro Christmas Parade was and one of the best in a long time. Entries from local businesses plus the Springhill Institution, Shriners, Chignecto Glooscap Snowmobile Assoc., Fundy Shore Auto Assoc. and Parrsboro, Southampton and FPW Fire departments made the parade much more enjoyable. The fine weather helped with a large crowd showing up to enjoy this wonderful event. Photos by Lawrence R Nicoll

Santa was riding on the Parrsboro Lions Club float.

Rising Tide Bakery staff took lots of time to prepare their float.

The local Cadets participated.

Horses always add plenty of interest to a parade.

Even the Springhill Institution came to add to the enjoyment.

No snow to plow, but Sammy Snowplow showed up.

The vehicle at the scene of a fire at Steven Clark residence is a total loss. (James Shaw Photo)

The Municipality of Cumberland entry.

There is not enough snow yet, but the snowmobile club participated.
