Senior Citizens Council & Clubs Meet in Parrsboro

By Hope Bridgewater

The Cumberland County Senior Citizens Council held a May meeting with the Over Sixty Club of Parrsboro as host in the Legion hall. The town of Parrsboro is famous for its high tides which sweep in and out of the Bay of Fundy twice daily with 100 billion tons of water; the Fundy Geological Museum; giant statue of Glooscap; Ottawa House By-The-Sea Museum; Rock & Mineral Shop & Museum; Ship's Company Theatre and for its several excellent restaurants.

Rosemary Wasson, President of the Parrsboro club, welcomed all the Cumberland County club members present and opened the hour of entertainment preceding the business meeting. Ronnie Canning, a local singer and guitarist, who sang in a convincing voice sad songs of heartbreak after split-ups of couples once in love: "Blue Eyes Cryin' in the Rain;" "Now I'm Cryin' My Heart Out Over You;" "What's Left of You and Me?;" "And All Because I Love No One but You;" and "That's Why I'm Lonely All the Time." Mr. Canning ended with the hymn "And He Walks with Me and He Talks with Me."

Next entertainer, Aileen Wiita, recited from memory the humorous story, "Maggie And Jiggs at the Pearly Gates." The third entertainer, Dora Fuller told us the stories she once told to her grandchildren: "The One Who Watches (an owl);" "Our Friend Max the Dog And Wally the Lost Cat Never Seen Again;" and "Dreams of Fortune (the greatest gift we have lies within ourselves.)" Mrs. Fuller then told us of her work with Extended Care in Alberta and the U.S.A.
