There are no words to adequately express the appreciation we feel for the overwhelming support, kindness and love, we have been blessed to receive. To all of you who took the time to make a phone call, a home visit with Dad and Mum, dropped off baked goods, sent a card. attend Dad's reception or simply gave us a hug and a word of comfort and condolence, we thank you all

Our sincere thanks to Rev. Dan Gunn for officiating at the memorial and the Londonderry Community Council members, who so efficiently organized the reception. Our provider, our protector, our role model, - who through his life gave so much to so many - in his words, in his laughter, in his music and in his wisdom – whose memory continues to provide us with the courage to continue on - We will miss him and love him forever and always – Loving husband to Mum, - and to us our DAD.
