

Annual Opening and Army Room Dedication Service DEBERT MILITARY MUSEUM

The Maritimes WWII Re-enactment Unit set up an authentic military camp at the Debert Military Museum throughout the last weekend in May. They enjoyed answering questions from visitors to the Museum, especially school children. Members were dressed as Canadian, American, Russian and German soldiers. (Harrington Photo)

Several army jeeps from the Atlantic Canada Military Vehicle Association were on display at the Debert Military Museum over the weekend of May 28th and 29th. (Harrington Photo)
