Sunday in the Park Concert Series RETURNED TO THE VICTORIA PARK JUNE 19

Truro's popular Sunday in the Park summer concert series returned to the J. Arch Fraser Bandshell at Victoria Park on Sunday, June 19, featuring some of this region's most talented musicians.

The free weekly outdoor concerts are sponsored by the Town of Truro's Department of Parks, Recreation and Culture, and held each Sunday from 2 to 4 pm.

There are also some special events, including a July 1 Canada Day concert hosted by the Truro Royal Canadian Legion, a Civic Holiday concert on August 1 and a Labour Day concert on September 5. Times for special concerts may vary.

Visitors are reminded while in the Victoria Park to enjoy refreshments and food from the canteen, the outdoor swimming pool, scenic trails and beautiful scenery covering 1,000 acres in the heart of Truro and to bring chairs and sunscreen.

The balance of the summer's lineup includes:

July 1: Canada Day festivities hosted by the Truro Royal Canadian Legion; July 3: Gordon Tucker & Laura Watson (2pm); Darcy Doucette (2pm); July 10: Julie Johnstone & Friends (2-4pm); July 17: Bob & CJ Prest (2-4pm); July 24: Code of 3 with Tim Bowers (2pm); Greg Langille & Nikki MacCallum (3pm) and July 31: Jim Richards & Rusty Cage (2-4pm)

August events include: Aug. 1: Civic Holiday Concert: Gordon Tucker & Tim Bowers (2pm); County Transit (3pm); Aug. 7: Andy LeBlanc & Friends (2-4pm); Aug. 14: Gerald

MacKenzie (2pm); Gary Webb (3pm); Aug. 21: Paul Randy Mingo (2-4pm) and Aug. 28: Witchitaw (2-4pm)
