

You could win this framed Joy Laking painting, "Starry Night in Parrsboro". Tickets available at Parrsboro Saturday Farmer's Market and Fundy Bay Antiques. (Submitted)

Win a Joy Laking Painting

By Taylor Redmond

Win a framed Joy Laking limited edition print of "Starry Night Parrsboro" in support of the Parrsboro People Places & Pets Enhancement Society (PPPP). Tickets available at the Parrsboro Saturday Farmer's Market and Fundy Bay Antiques on Main St. Parrsboro.

The PPPP Society is gearing back up to get a few new projects off the ground and to reboot some previous projects. Some of the projects on the Society's "To Do List" are: Replacement parts for the Courtesy K9 Kennels that got damaged in last year's wind storms.

Society would like to purchase another courtesy kennel.

Purchase dog water dishes, to have in front of businesses along the Main St. area.

Assist with potential costs in getting a visiting Veterinary service set up for weekly visits.

The Society works to develop public spaces making them enjoyable and safe for all of the community:

Parrsboro People Places and Pets Enhancement Society.

For more information: Taylor M Redmond, Cumberland County Project Facilitator, 902 254-4098 c; or RR#3, Parrsboro, NS, BOM 1S0, (902) 392-2658

John Calder, Senior Geologist, NS Department of Natural Resources, has been a driving force behind the Cliffs of Fundy Apripring GeoPark initiative explains the action of the Bay of Fundy to the National GeoPark evaluators, Pierre Verpaest, left and Sarah Waters. (M Leslie Photo)

Anita MacLellan, long time promoter of the shore, and member of the Cliffs of Fundy steering committee, explains the tides and mudflats at Thomas Cove. Word is the evaluators were totally amazed with the action of the Bay of Fundy tides. (M Leslie Photo)

Parrsboro Band Day, July 22

By Patricia Burke

The Parrsboro Band Association will hold their 46th Annual Band Day and Bar-b-que on Sunday, July 22 starting at 12 noon at the bandstand in Parrsboro. Groups confirmed who will attend include: Parrsboro Citizens Choir; Elastic Big Band; Sackville Citizens' Band; Heatherbell Girls Pipes and Drums from Pictou and George Street Concert Band.

There will be music all afternoon along with locally-made sausage, strawberries grown locally and biscuits all home made. There will be soft drinks available all afternoon. Coffee will be free all afternoon. Winning ticket on 25 lbs lobster which will be drawn for at the end of the afternoon. T-shirts and memberships available for sale all afternoon.

Support has been received from Atlantic Lottery, Dept. of Agriculture, Masstown Market as well as Cross Roads Co-op. So mark July 22 on your calendar and head to the bandstand for a wonderful afternoon of music. Don't forget your chair. In case of inclement weather all festivities will be at the hall on King Street.

Everyone is invited. Please RSVP Laurie by Friday June 29th at education@jogginsfossilcliffs.net or call 902-251-2727 Ext. 224. All activities take place at the Joggins Fossil Centre, 100 Main Street, Joggins.

For information: Laurie Glenn Norris M.A., Education & Outreach Manager, Joggins Fossil Institute, education@jogginsfossil-cliffs.net, 902-251-2727 Ext. 224

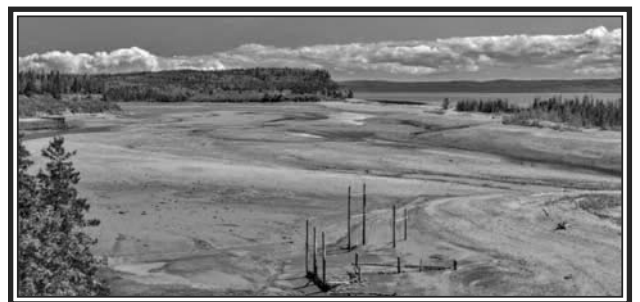

CLASS 'A' Trucking & Septic Pumping
Call Us Now: 902-254-3492

Portable Toilet Rentals and Septic Pumping Services

Enough Said!
You know what we do!
And, we do it well!

LARRY STRONG INC.
Garbage Removal, Roll-Off Can Rentals, Buyer of Metals, Cars, Trucks etc., Light Towing (deck truck), Mover of Baby Barns.

Call 902-254-4343

Reproducing this photo of Diligent River in a newspaper doesn't do it justice. It would be more appropriate framed and on a wall, or a wall mural. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)

Not as popular or photographed as much as Peggy's Cove Lighthouse, but the Parrsboro Lighthouse is often the choice of photographers who want to capture a terrific sunset reflecting off a traditional lighthouse. (Lawrence R. Nicoll Photo)

July 14 Yard Sale on Hwy 209

The 75km yard sale coming up on July 14th extends beyond Parrsboro and along the Highway 209 to Brookville.

The Shore Drive Community Development

Association (SDCDA) sponsors and advertises for those involved. We have balloons out at each spot, and pass out a list of where each yard sale is located along the way.

Joggins Fossil Festival - July 7th, 2018

By Laurie Glenn Norris M.A.

The Joggins Fossil Institute celebrates the 10th anniversary of the Joggins Fossil Cliffs UNESCO World Heritage Designation with a fossil festival on Saturday July 7th.

The day begins at 9:00 a.m. with opening remarks by Dr. John Calder and Blessing of the Cliffs by Mi'kmaq elders Emile Gautreau and Louise Goodwin. From 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. there will be a vendors' marketplace, fossil displays, and information tables.

Behind-the-Scenes Collection tours with Dr. Melissa Grey take place at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. There is a $10 per-person charge for the tours. Please email info@jogginsfossil-cliffs.net to register in advance.

There will also be children's activities, storytelling and a BBQ hosted by the 1442 River Hebert District School Army Cadet Corps.

At 6:00 p.m. an anniversary reception will be held.

Joggins: Fossil Festival – July 7TH - Full Schedule

During 2018, the Joggins Fossil Institute celebrates the Joggins Fossil Cliffs' tenth year as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Institute is pleased to mark this special anniversary with a number of events throughout the year and, in particular, on Saturday July 7, with a fossil festival.

The festival schedule of events includes:

9:00 a.m.

Opening remarks, Dr. John Calder, Department of Natural Resources, Province of NS, Blessing of the Cliffs, Emile Gautreau and Louise Goodwin

10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Local vendors/authors sell their products: Barry's Discs, Dr. John Calder, Dave Carey, Fundy Treasures, Head of the River Publishing, Martha Hickman Hild and Joyce McManaman

Information tables: Cumberland Genealogy Society, Louise and Emile Gautreau, Minudie Heritage Association, Nature Conservancy of Canada, Tantramar Heritage Trust, Westmoreland Historical Society.

Fossil displays from provincial collections: Atlantic Geology Society, Fundy Geology Museum, Joggins Fossil Centre and Nova Scotia Museum

Kids' activities/storytelling: 1442 River Hebert School Army Cadet Corps - fundraiser BBQ

10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Exclusive Behind-the-Scenes Collection Tours with Dr. Melissa Grey, Curator of Science, Joggins Fossil Institute.

Space is limited so register early at info@jogginsfossilcliffs.net There is a $10-per-person charge - pay when you arrive at the Joggins Fossil Centre.

6:00 p.m.

Public anniversary reception at the Joggins Fossil Centre - everyone welcome. Elizabeth Copeland, 2018 ArtScape Artist-in-Residence, will read from her latest work.

Schedule may change without notice - please visit www.jogginsfossilcliffs.net/festival/ for the latest updates and contact Laurie at 902-251-2727 ext. 224 or education@jogginsfossilcliffs.net for more information at any time.

municipality of cumberland

Building Season Is Here!!

Residents of The Municipality Of Cumberland are asked to please remember to get your development and building permits at a municipal service center and avoid costly mistakes or fines.

Permits are required for, but limited to, the following:

- Decks (New, Replacements & Rebuilds)
- Sheds (over 215 Square Feet)
- Garages
- Homes, Cottages, Mini Homes
- Reno's - All Structural & Non Structural Over $5000.00 (Appraised Cost With Labor)
- Barns, Work-Shops, Out Buildings
- Additions, Footings & Foundations

If you are not sure if you require a permit and your project will take place in the Municipality of Cumberland call and speak with a building official at 902 667-1142. If the project is taking place in the Town of Amherst, please call Marc Buske at 902-694-2318.

If you would like to print off a building permit application from our website, please visit:
<https://www.cumberlandcounty.ns.ca/subdivision-development.html>