Old Fashioned Saturday Night, Sat. July 5

By Patricia Burke
Parrsboro will be a buzz on July 5 as a group of dedicated volunteers will hold the above event starting at 6 p. m. The Main St. Will be closed from 5 pm to allow the Fundy Shore Car Club will move their cars into place to allow you to view their cars for a couple of hours.
There will be vendors for you to support as well. If you would like to be a vendor please let Patricia Burke know at 902-297 4845 by July 2, 2025 or e-mail at Patricia.burke.parrsboro@gmail.com or through pm on FB. We are getting booking know so let me know soon. Tickets will be sold on 25 lbs of lobster, hamburgers, hot dogs, cotton candy, games, live music. So get on the bandwagon and have a great night Old fashioned style Saturday Night.

The Hall is looking up in Parrsboro

By Patricia Burke
As I am writing this article for The Hall in Parrsboro we are having a complete paint job of the exterior. Once the job is complete, we will send a picture to show those who are unable to come and see.
We will have 3 movies during the month July. On the 2nd will be Last Breath at 7:30. On the 16th will be The Friend, and on the 30th will be The Becoming of Led Zephlin.
Band Days will be held again from July 18 to 20th will take place again. Watch for the schedule in your Post Office Box soon.
On Friday July 25 Ryan Cook will perform his Tribute Show to a sold out audience.
The Sunday evening Concerts in the Park continue weather permitting at 7 pm.
Interested in joining any of the groups that rehearse at The Hall contact Rob Bentley or once September rolls around drop by the hall in the evening.
Never a dull moment at The Hall and the Bandstand. Have a wonderful July.
