Located in the remarkable Northumberland Shore Village of Pugwash, Basic Spirit Craft Gallery sells a collection of fine pewter giftware, home accents, jewellery and a variety of other gifts. All of Basic Spirit's pewter is handcrafted in Pugwash using the finest quality lead-free alloy of tin, copper and antimony. In addition to many handcrafted pewter items Basic Spirit sells fudge from its retail store. A very attractive website includes an on-line catalogue that attracts internet customers from near and far.

Owners Bonnie Bond and John Caraberis believe in giving back and donate 10% of their profits to charitable organizations. Some of the benefactors of this generosity include: Nature Conservancy of Canada, The Hunger Project, Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation, Foster Parents Plan, Stephen Lewis Foundation and Tree planting in Canada & Africa.

FOOD & BEVERAGE AWARD 2010

Wild Caraway, Advocate

Andrew Aitken & Sarah Griebel provide affordable, locally grown foods that people from all parts of Nova Scotia and beyond are praising. Their establishment allows customers to be served while overlooking the famous tides of the Bay of Fundy, a feature that attracts people worldwide. Wild Caraway offers guest room accommodations that includes breakfast and wireless high speed internet for their guests, should they choose to spend the evening in Advocate Harbour. Wild Caraway has created a very natural atmosphere, by developing an earthy décor and a healthy menu, allowing customers and visitors to feel relaxed and comfortable.

To quote one visitor: "As locals we are very fortunate to be blessed with such a high quality restaurant in this little village of around 200 people. People from far and wide have raved about this place and we have to agree that it is from our experience the best restaurant in the province."
