The Best Along the Shore

War Memorial Park

Another addition to this wonderful area is the Robert Cochrane War Memorial Park, located just past Shaw's Market. The park was built a few years ago with the help of partnerships of local and provincial governments and hard working enthusiastic members of the community. When you visit the memorial area, you can look up the names of those from these communities who fought in both of the world wars, probably finding the names of lost relatives, if you have ancestor connections to the area.

It is worth noting, Chipman Kerr, Fox River was awarded the Victoria Cross by King George V. His family home remains in Fox River. You will find his name on one of the Memorial Slabs at this lovely park. Through local initiatives the park is expanded each year.

Ebb Tide Bed and Breakfast is just next door, and is another accommodations possibility on your travel. Just down Wagstaff Road, awaits the scenic Port Greville Look Off, with picnic tables and two seated "time to remember" bench and a spectacular view of the whole of the Minas Basin.

Look carefully eastward and you might now see the ghosts of the shipbuilders working away at the mouth of the Greville River. The Studio Gallery on Albert's Corner is just ahead. Take your time on the entrance to the gallery, it is a wild turn. However, this is a good thing, as it slows you down enough to make entrance to the gallery.

At the gallery you will find Gerry and Sharon either busy framing, making their incredible jams and jellies, or mounting their black and white photographs into greeting card formats. Perhaps they might be outside working on their "grow local country gardens," where you can purchase fresh garden greens or plant cuttings.

Local scenes adorn the walls of their gallery and invite you in for a visit. During the months of summer, they cannot keep up with their orders of photos and preserves. They too are somewhat new residents to this area, having moved here from Ontario, and purchased the home of the Late Bishop Hatfield (remember him from the Anglican Church, back a few paragraphs). Sharon is now becoming famous for her cookbooks, which are being published. Ask her about them, buy one and get an autograph.

Shipbuilding Museum

Still eastward, you will come across our famous little Shipbuilding Museum, just around the corner in Ward's Brook. This is a jewel that you must not miss. Recorded here in the walls and the genealogy room are magnificent volumes of history of the area, the shipbuilding, the topography of the land.

Oralee will give you a wonderful tour, and then you can enjoy tea and treats in the little tea room overlooking the upper end of the Greville River. The Age of Sail is expanding once again this year and is absolute proof of how much a small community can do, once their minds are to it. Many local events are sponsored at the Age of Sail each year, just watch for their list of upcoming events on their web page at: www.ageofsailmuseum.ca

Be sure to stop at the beautiful beach in Wards Brook. Just follow the sign to "Ward's Brook Beach". Narrow road, hidden in trees, but eventually you will come out to the miles of untouched beach walking area where you walk right down the Brookville Rock, a favorite photo shoot spot for many photographers that have discovered it.

It is hard to describe the beauty of this walk, and one has to experience it to believe it. How many places in the world today can walk for hours, enjoy nature at its finest, feel completely safe, and renew your spirit and soul? Not, too many.

Next Communities

Your trip through the Shore Drive Area is complete. There is plenty of scenery, history and hospitality to enjoy in the communities of Fraserville, Spencer's Island, Advocate, Apple River, and Joggins. They have so much to offer and so much history.

By the time you reach Advocate you will probably be very hungry, so make it a point to stop at the Wild Caraway Cafe for a delicious meal. Andrew and Sarah will greet you with their infectious welcomes and great food. Don't forget to drive out to spectacular Cape D'Or, where Darcy and his family will welcome you as well, they too will provide a beautiful meal. You will eventually make your way around to our world famous Joggins Fossil Cliffs and expansive interpretative centre.

There is just so much around "the loop" for you to see and do. My mission was to do a story on the Shore Drive Community Development Area, but I also firmly believe that each and every one of us, no matter our area or business, has to work with and promote one another. No one can win a baseball game if only the pitcher is playing in the game.

Since, we cannot turn back the hands of time, to when our area was a hive of commercial activity, we can only move forward by promoting our one and only and largest hope for new growth and revival.

I write this from a point of view of some knowledge, you see I grew up here and have "come back", remember when and see now, but also believe in the future.

Gayle Shaw and her husband, Terry, are former owners of the county store in Port Greville and have devoted many hours to promoting the Shore Drive area.
