

Les Misérables to be shown at "The Hall" in Parrsboro, Wednesday, June 19

By Patricia Burke
The Parrsboro Band Association Film Society is excited to announce they have contracted specially to be allowed to show "Les Misérables" for a single screening only on Wed. June 19, 2013 at 7:30 pm.

The movie originated from a very long novel (113 pgs) by Victor Hugo.

It is a stage musical from 20 years ago that started in France with the French version and then moved to Britain for the English version.

This movie was released in 2012.

The film stars Hugh Jackman, Russell Crowe and Amy Hathaway.

The most unusual part is this movie is, it is cored singing live. This movie was chosen to honour the Classics by the Bay Festival which is held from Fri. June 21-Sun. June 23 in Parrsboro, NS.

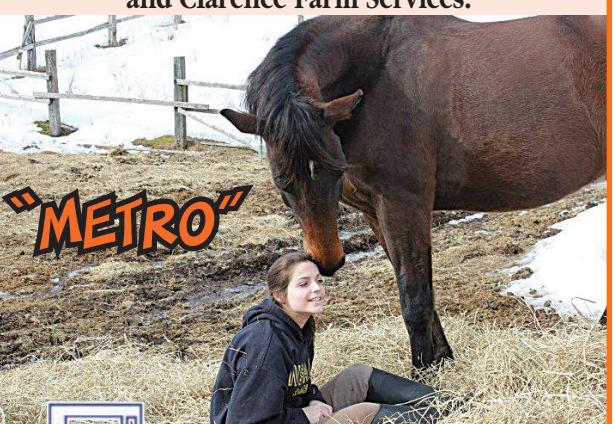

We have theatre style seats and huge screen and the best popcorn around.

Mark June 19 on your calendar and bring a friend for a great night out.

PARRSBORO The Place to be this Summer

By Patricia Burke

Several new initiatives have been recently announced that should encourage people to visit our great town this summer and onward. First, the Parrsboro Recreation Department will be creating a community garden on the lot adjacent to the Town Hall property. This is a unique idea where boxes will be built and residents can go to plant their own space. The Communities in Bloom committee mission is to make a beautiful town with lots of flowers being planted.

Movies will be held on Wed. June 5 (Silver Linings Playbook) at 7:30 pm. On Wed. June 19 Les Misérables will be shown at 7:30 pm.

Another great announcement is the opening of the Old Post Office on Main Street. There will be workshops in photography and much more. A farmers market is planned for Tues from 4-7 pm and Sat. Am from 9 until noon. Visit their website at www.hmsnonesuch.com for all their great news. Actors and actresses will soon be arriving to start their rehearsals for the main stage performances at the Ships Co. Theatre. If you see one of them give them a warm

On the 1st Thurs June 6th a Fish Chowder and Soup Luncheon will be held at Trinity United Church from 11:30-1 pm. Each Thursday evening the Ottawa Households Storytelling beginning at 7 pm. This will now take place at the Ottawa House Museum for the summer months.

The Annual Plant, Yard and Bake Sale will take place at The Hall on King St. In Parrsboro from 9 am-noon. If you would like to rent a table, call 254-3674 and a volunteer will return your call. Please call ASAP to reserve a table. Donations will be accepted from 7-8 pm the night before.

Movies will be held on Wed. June 5 (Silver Linings Playbook) at 7:30 pm. On Wed. June 19 Les Misérables will be shown at 7:30 pm.

Sunday, June 2, 2013 at 7:00 a Gospel Concert will be held at Trinity United Church in Parrsboro. A free will offering will be taken up with half to Relay for Life and Trinity United Church. Returning by popular demand are "Concerts in the Park" each Sunday evening at 7 pm at the Bandstand in Parrsboro. Donations appreciated and will be donated to the musician's charity of choice.

Make sure you mark your calendars for July 6, 2013, Old Fashioned Sat. Night will be held in Parrsboro starting at 6 pm and Lions Old Home Week will take place on July 10-13, 2013. So head on down to Parrsboro and enjoy the genuine hospitality that Parrsboro provides.

Tips to Attract More Birds

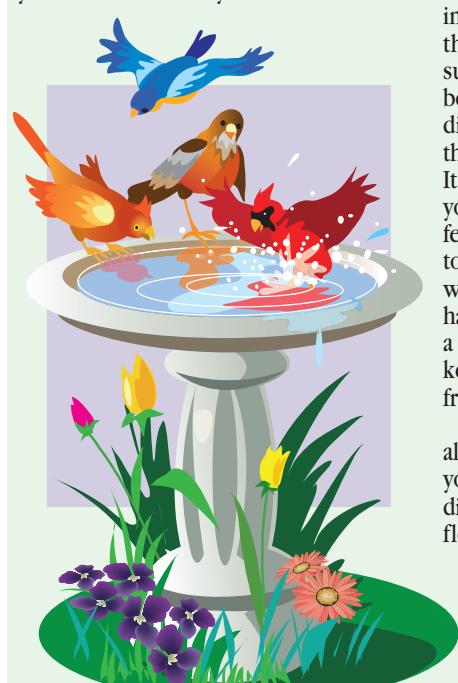

By Christine Urquhart

We have some serious bird watchers here in Masstown and many folks who just enjoy seeing and feeding the birds in their yard. At this time of year it is great if you can put out nest items, such as bits of yarn or thread, for the birds to use. One of those bags onions come in works very well for this.

Remember to keep feeding the birds throughout the summer. You will be amazed by the different species that will show up. It is time to put up your hummingbird feeders. Remember to keep the sugar water fresh, and hang your feeder in a shady place to keep the water from going cloudy.

A bird bath will also attract birds to your yard, as will different kinds of flowers. Birds love a bird bath but they also like some privacy so place your bird bath near

June at the Marigold Cultural Centre

By Craig Johnson

June at the Marigold will bring comedy, music, and another great art exhibit to downtown Truro! We will also begin our summer arts education programs with Leslie Lake Seale's musical theatre program on June 25th, 26th, and 27th.

Saturday June 8th is going to be a big night at the Marigold! Stan Carew, of CBC Radio fame, and John Campbelljohn will hit the stage. Stan Carew has been the host of CBC's Weekend Mornings since 1997. Stan is also a musician, and has been a member of the long-running Halifax collective The Wolverines for 30 years. He's also played in bluegrass bands, and with some of his CBC colleagues in the BBQ Kings. He's currently performing with his band the Magpies at concert venues around the Maritimes and is planning to record and release an album later this year.

Stan Carew will be at the Marigold with John Campbelljohn, an artist known for his unique ability to soulfully command the stage with rich vocals, while his powerfully prolific technique on guitar, or trusty dobro lap steel, further embellishes each composition. His power trio ups the ante with an electric sound that can pummel an audience into submission or captivate them with the subtleties of ace musicians driven solely by the love of their craft.

Also on the night of June 8th, we will have an art gallery opening for Jaye Ouellette's exhibit, "SEA." Jaye's work has been exhibited many times, through private and public galleries in Canada and the US, including 6 solo shows in Toronto. She has been awarded numerous grants, through the Ontario Arts Council and the Ontario Craft Council, and has had the honor of serving as a juror for an OAC grant.

Her work is included in a number of private and corporate art collections. Her commission work is extensive, most notably, the Skydome Hotel, in Toronto, and has created the annual awards for "Toronto Women in Film". She has lectured about her work and open to all!

Guess who else is dropping in by June? Jimmy The Janitor! Join us for laughs on June 14th. The maritime's best...good clean fun! He's been called "The Dean of Dust, the Squire of the Squegee, the CEO of CLR," but mostly he's been called on to entertain audiences across Canada and the United States for over 25 years.
