

Aboriginal Day

June 21, 2016

Come learn, share and discover the unique, diverse and outstanding contributions of First Nations in Nova Scotia. One of the largest Aboriginal Day events takes place at the Millbrook Cultural and Heritage Centre on Tuesday, June 21.

The Millbrook Cultural and Heritage Centre

“Dedicated to the celebration of Mi’kmaq culture”

This year marks the 20th Anniversary of Aboriginal Day in Canada.

Starting at 11:00am with the Grand Entry, and throughout the day there is a lineup of events for all ages to enjoy. Performances by First Nations dancers, singers and drummers in traditional and non-traditional regalia. Food venues, gift shop and a kids corner will add to the day.

Discover an interesting Heritage Centre, with First Nation Interpreters that can provide guided tours or you can have a self-guided tour. Call ahead for information about tours. The Centre is open from May 9 to October 31 2106. Hours are as follows; Weekdays 8:a.m. to 4:30p.m. Weekends 9:00a.m to 5p.m. and Holidays from 8a.m. to 4:30p.m. Contact Heather Stevens, Operations Supervisor at: heather@millbrookheritagecentre.ca
