

A portion of the kitchen crew who prepared a great meal for 80 people, switched over to cut the birthday cake and add a scoop of ice-cream. The cake was donated by Masstown Market.

Karen Casey, MLA, pitches in to help the other elected representatives serve the meals.

A great supporter of the birthday party, District 10 Councillor, Tom Taggart is always ready to pitch in to help. He takes his turn serving meals.

District 9 Councillor, Doug MacInnes, presents a Happy 90th Birthday Certificate to Evelyn Van Buskirk.

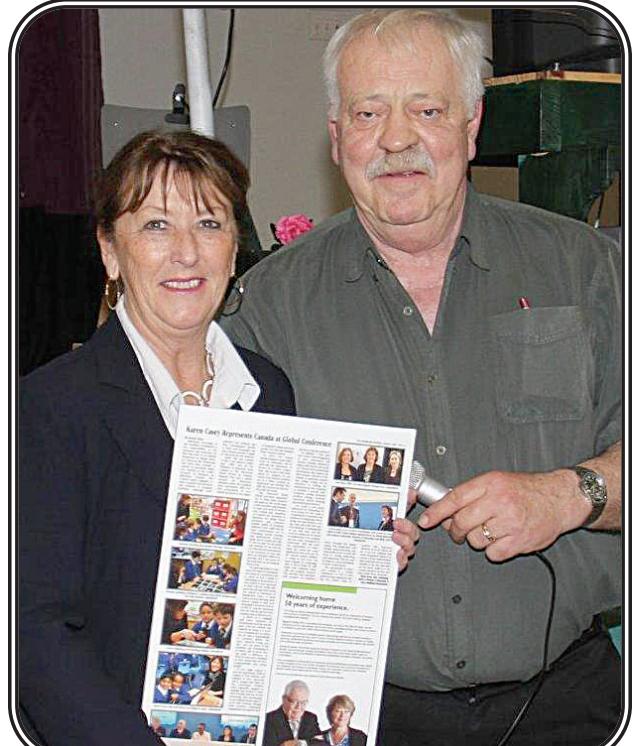

Municipality of Colchester Mayor Bob Taylor serves a meal to Art Chisholm, Great Village, while Hazel Hill, also of Great Village, awaits her meal.

Councillor Don Fletcher, Municipality of Cumberland, passes a meal to Brenda Hamilton, who accompanied her mother, Evelyn Van Buskirk, who turning 90 on June 2, attended the party for the first time.

Normally, we don't try to identify all the people in the "table" photos, however, out of sadness, we feel we must. Pictured on the bottom left is Marguerite Wagstaff, Parrsboro, who has attended along with her husband, Millard, in previous years. Unfortunately on May 17th Mrs. Wagstaff passed away. When mentioned to Kyle Hebb, Smith's Funeral Home, the following is Mr. Hebb's reply: "They told me that earlier; in fact, they told me how great you were to them while they had attended. Millard is a great guy and appreciates all gestures of kindness, and the whole family certainly appreciated yours while they attended your event!"

Maurice Rees, publisher, presents a plaque of a page from the Shoreline Journal to Karen Casey, MLA. The page from the April 2016 issue contained an article and photos when Karen Casey, MLA represented Canada at an Education forum in the United Kingdom.

Karen Casey, MLA presented a certificate to Maurice Rees, publisher for the Shoreline Journal's recent accomplishment as a standing finalist (top 3) in two categories during Newspapers Atlantic Better Newspaper Competition. The Shoreline won the Best Circulation Category for its fund raising drive to help Victoria Hall, Parrsboro, and finished third the Community Engagement Category with the 2015 90 & 90+ Birthday Party being the subject entered.

Thanks to all in attendance!

Four people were eligible to attend and had been invited, but were unable to do so. They are:

Jake Robben, Belmont, who turned 90 last year

Doris McCully, Debert, who turns 90 in July

Arthur Ramsperger, Parrsboro, who turned 90 in March

Molly Gregson, who now lives in Truro turns 90 in August
