8 Dairy 4-H'ers can attend Royal Winter Fair

By Mary-Emma Barnhill

For this month, I'm going to be talking about the Dairy project. The conformation classes for Dairy at County and Provincial levels are; Holstein, Jersey, Ayrshire, and Other Dairy Breeds such as Brown Swiss, Milking Shorthorn, Guernsey, etc.

Calves will be judged in the following age categories; Junior Calf, born from March 1st to April 30 of the current 4H year, Intermediate Calf, born from the previous December 1st to February 28 of the current year, Senior Calf, born from September 1st to November 30, Summer Yearling, born from June 1st to August 31st, and Junior Yearling, from March 1st to May 31st of the current year.

Nova Scotia can send up to 8 Dairy members to the Royal Dairy Classic at the Royal Winter Fair, held in November. The selections are made at the 4H Nova Scotia Show. One of the members selected will be the recipient of the John Versteeg Memorial Award. An additional person will also receive the Andrea Crowe Memorial Herdperson Award. They will travel with the 8 members selected and assist with feeding, calf and stall preparations, mentoring, and supporting the team.

EastGen also holds a showcase for Beef and Dairy members who are 13 and older as of January 1st. Included in the showcase is training and education on how to properly show, judge, prepare, and manage your calf. There is also a competitive show.

The Donald and Regional Scotthern Memorial Competition is another competition open to all junior and senior Dairy members. In it, members will draw for and then evaluate a calf in a written report. They will wash, clip, and train the calf before showing it in a showmanship class. Judging Day was held on May 22nd and 23rd. The winners will be moving on to judge again at Exhibition.

Mon, Tues, Wed, Fri: 9-5:30
