What's happening at the Debert Military Museum?

By Susan Taylor

The Debert Military Museum is gearing up for this year's season.

In April, we held a very successful Breakfast fundraiser and we would like to thank all those who helped us with the breakfast, the Debert Legion for the use of the kitchen and hall, to those who donated food items and especially all those who came out to support us.

The museum opened for the season on May 26th. Come on out and meet our summer student Cameron Allaby. He will be more than pleased to provide you with a tour.

Our annual quilt ticket fundraiser has started tickets can be purchased at the museum or through a board member. There will also be dates set up in the fall at Masstown Market to sell them. We will again be participating in Debert Days. This year on Aug 11th. This will be another fundraiser for the museum.

Peacekeepers day will be on Aug 12th at 1 pm. Please come out to our ceremonies which recognize our peacekeepers. We have started a Facebook Online Auction, and this will run until Aug 11th. Lots of items will be available. Please support our auction.

We will be doing some minor renovations over the summer painting etc. Please don't mind our mess we will be as neat as possible. We hope you can take the time to visit the Museum over the summer. We always have new artifacts coming in so there is always something new.

The Debert Military Museum is managed by a volunteer Board of Directors and funding for the management and upkeep is provided by donations and fundraising. We are always looking for new Board Members if you are interested in the History of Camp Debert why not contact us to see how you can help.
