Volunteering is important. Robert MacDonald was presented the volunteer award from Chris Guinan, representing, award sponsor, CIBC Wood Gundy.

Volunteer Robert MacDonald

Robert is a tireless volunteer and exemplifies the spirit of sport and fair play. He encourages the players to be the best they can be whilst emphasizing having fun. He wants the children in the community to have quality experiences and does what he can to make that happen. He builds relationships with the children he coaches and makes them feel special.

Robert coaches in West Colchester and was the head coach of both the PeeWee C and Novice intermediate hockey teams and moved on to be the head the coach for both the PeeWee C and Atom C teams. This responsibility puts him on the ice six times a week.

He also serves as a member of the Executive in the West Colchester Minor Hockey Association. He is also the Minor Hockey Ice Manager which means he is in charge of scheduling ice times for all teams in the hockey association, a huge job. As well, as treasurer of the West Colchester Arena, he is not only responsible for keeping track of expenses; he also writes cheques and pays bills.

His record speaks for itself as he has dedicated himself to the children of Colchester County.

It all starts on Thursday morning when the peelers show up and start getting the carrots, turnip and potatoes ready for Friday evening. To all of you (too many to list), thank you very much. Your help is greatly appreciated.

The Friday Night Dart League closed out another successful year with their year ending banquet, which consisted of salads, rolls, BBQ steak and pork chops and I want you to know it was some tasty, thanks to the BBQ skills of Ron Eastcott, Jim Totten and Norm Eastcott.

The salads were provided by Audrey Gallagher and Debbie Buchanan and they were great. Marcia Eastcott did the marinating and it was just awesome. Thank you to all who did their thing, it was simply great. Oh yes, before I forget, thank you to Joanie for the rolls.

The finals standings and individual stats were in last month's edition of The Shoreline Journal and all winners were rewarded financially.

A special thank you is passed along to the clean-up crew, who did a great job.

Special guests of the banquet were President Bobby Pash and Tracy Colpitts.
