KAY, Roderick G. "Pete" - Age 76, of Amherst, and formerly of Parrsboro. It is with great sadness that we announce the sudden passing of our dear brother and uncle, Roderick "Pete" Kay on Monday, May 21, 2018 at the Cumberland Regional Health Care Centre, Upper Nappan, surrounded by his loving family as he peacefully passed in the early morning hours. Pete was born in Parrsboro in 1941, a son of the late George and Madeline "Maudie" (Harrigan) Kay. In his early 20's, Pete moved to Ontario to make his fortune. While no fortune was gained, he did find his jewel, Marie "Snoop". They married in 1965, later returning to the Atlantic provinces where they lived in both NB and NS. Pete was employed at the Dorchester Correctional Facility for more than 25 years. He had a unique sarcastic wit, something we all loved about him. Even in his last days, he found strength to muster up a sarcastic remark here and there. Pete is survived by his beloved wife, Marie of over 52 years; brother, Merton "Nuke" Kay, Parrsboro; sisters, Mary Anne Gilbert, Pauline Morris, Betty Jeffers (Floyd), all of Parrsboro; numerous treasured nieces and nephews, especially Tim and Brenda Jeffers, and Treena Grace who showed extra care and devotion to both Pete and Marie in his last few weeks. He was predeceased by a brother, William "Bill"; a sister, Rebecca; brother-in-law, Bruce Hunter; sisters-in-law, Joyce and Doreen; nephew, Richard Hunter; nieces, Suzanne Hunter and Janet Hiltz. A private graveside service will be held at a later date. Memorial donations may be made to the Canadian Cancer Society or to the LA Animal Shelter, Amherst. Arrangements entrusted to Smith's Funeral Home, Parrsboro. Online condolences at www.smithsfuneralhome.com

BUSINESS HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MONTH

Look for the Union Jacks outside the Great British Grub café (formerly known as Give Back Café,) at 535 Prince Street, across from the Provincial Court in Truro's west end.

Jane and Chris Elgee are very excited and welcome patrons to try some British favorites and some new additions too. Jane is a trained Chef and no stranger to serving the foods customers enjoy.

Both Jane and Chris are well known at the Farmers Market in Truro and now customers do not have to wait until Saturdays. Starting with a full breakfast menu treating patrons to an English, Celtic or Canadian fare at the beginning of each day.

During the day you can enjoy bangers and mash, shepherd's pie and on Thursday, the Jiggs Dinner corn beef and cabbage.

The Fair Trade Coffee brand continues to be a staple at this location. Also on the menu, customers may enjoy steak and kidney pie, Cornish pastries, Lancashire Hot Pie and so much more.

The new décor puts you in the mood for England and British, flags, colour and an accent too. Patrons will really enjoy, the look, the vibe and great food.

Hours of operation are Saturday and Sunday from 8am to 1pm. Tuesday to Thursday 8am to 4:30pm and the kitchen closes at 2:30pm. Friday from 8am to 10pm and the entertainment for Fridays continues, (another tradition for the location). Take in the live music on Friday nights. Hope to see you there!
